PLAYER OF THE WEEK

DAN LANOUE, MITCHELL

Sr. / 2B/Cranston East/Cranston, Rhode Island

The second baseman went on a tear last week in the three-game sweep of CUNYAC opponent Staten Island. The Cranston, Rhode Island native reached base in 11 out of his 14 plate appearances, going 9-for-12 with a pair of walks against the Dolphins. The senior also scored eight runs and knocked in four more teammates. Mitchell needed all four of his runs scored in game two of the series, a 9-8 extra-inning squeaker. The Cranston East graduate, who was also a part of five defensive double plays, raised his average to .292 on the season.

PITCHER OF THE WEEK

JEREMY CHAPMAN, MITCHELL

Fr. / LHP / Waterford HS / Oakdale, Conn.

The southpaw stymied Staten Island batters in Mitchell's 13-1 victory in game three of the conference series on April 7th. The Oakdale, Connecticut native yielded just one run as he tossed a complete-game to improve to 4-0 on the season. The freshman scattered nine hits and allowed only one free pass on the afternoon. Mitchell has climbed to second place in the CUNYAC standings.

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

DEVON DICASOLI, STATEN ISLAND

Fr. / 3B / Moore/Staten Island, NY

The freshman was a bright spot for Staten Island despite a 0-4 week. The third baseman hit .615 (8-for-13), scored four runs and added a pair of doubles. The Moore product reached safely seven times in 11 plate appearances in the series versus Mitchell. He also went 2-for-3 (double) and scored twice against William Paterson (4/3). The Staten Island native raised his average to a team-leading .421 on the season.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

BRIANNE RUSSO, STATEN ISLAND

Sr. / INF / Moore / Staten Island, NY

The senior hit .429 on the week to help lead Staten Island to a 3-1 mark. The infielder went 5-for-7, scored five runs and added 3 RBI's in the Dolphins conference sweep of John Jay on April 3rd. The Staten Island native also added a hit in the doubleheader versus Rutgers-Camden. The Moore graduate raised her average to .333 on the season.

PITCHER OF THE WEEK

NICOLE GRILLI, HUNTER

So. / P / James Madison HS / Brooklyn, NY

The sophomore won both of her conference starts last week to improve her record to 5-2 on the season. The sophomore, who has won five straight decisions, allowed just three hits, one earned run, and two walks in 11 innings of work. The Brooklyn native recorded a career-high eight strikeouts in 5.0 innings against Medgar Evers (4/3) to open the week. The James Madison graduate followed that up with a solid 6.0 inning outing versus Lehman (4/6), allowing one earned run on three hits. She lowered her ERA to 2.70 on the season.

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

JENNIFER VOLPE, STATEN ISLAND

Fr. / OF / Moore HS / Staten Island, NY

The freshman belted a game-winning homer in the seventh inning of Staten Island's 3-2 win against Rutgers-Camden (4/6), the defending national champions. The blast capped a perfect 3-for-3 day for the Staten Island native. The Moore graduate went 4-for-8 on the week to raise her average to an impressive .389 on the season.
