CUNY PLAYER OF THE WEEK

YASMINE DANIELS, HUNTER

SR. • MB • Midwood / Brooklyn, NY

Daniels' play in the middle helped the streaking Hawks team to a 5-0 record last week, including a crucial 3-1 CUNYAC victory at CCNY in a battle for first place. On the week, she averaged an astounding 1.5 solo blocks per game (2.1 total blocks/gm.), and put down 46 kills in her 20-game week. Against CCNY, Daniels hit .619 (14 kills) and registered seven solo blocks. Also of note, she blocked 13 balls (11 solo) in a five-game victory over Farmingdale, as Hunter swept all three matches in its invitational Saturday. On the year, Daniels has 77 total blocks (1.43/gm.) and ranks third on the Hawks in kills per game.

CUNY ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

JASMINE GONZALEZ, MEDGAR EVERS

FR. • OH • Fashion Industries / Brooklyn, NY

Gonzalez continued her torrid rookie campaign last week for Medgar Evers, and receives her third weekly citation from the conference. She helped the Cougars to a 4-1 record last week, hitting .432 (73-22-118) while averaging 4.06 kills, 0.83 aces, 2.44 digs and 0.5 blocks per game. Gonzalez registered two double-doubles on the week, including a 13-kill, 14-dig effort in CUNYAC action at Brooklyn, and hit .619 (15-2-21) with five aces and five blocks against New Rochelle.
